Letter No. O.F.3-1645/1421, dated the 8th April 1903, from the Post-Master General, Madras, to the First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident of Mysore.

I have the honour to bring to your notice that, on or about the 8th January 1903, one Alasingra Iyengar, a retired Assistant Inspector of the Excise Department, posted a cover in the Malleswaram Post Office containing a private communication addressed to the Treasury Officer Chickballapur, under the superscription, "On Mysore Government Service". The cover was delivered to the addressee on the 10th idem. It was obtained from him for purposes of enquiry and is herewith forwarded, together with a copy of the communication it contained and a statement of the sender, Alasingra Iyengar, admitting that he was wrong in having superscribed the cover "On Mysore Government Service"

2. As this is a clear case of the infringement of rules relating to official correspondence by the Mysore officials, I request that you will bring it to the notice of the Durbar to prevent a recurrence, with a view to stopping the irregular practice generally.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 550/Ex, dated 1st instant, enquiring what notice I would take of the conduct of Narasingariengar, retired Excise Assistant Inspector, Chickballapur, for having posted to the Treasury Officer, Chickballapur, a cover containing a private communication under the superscription "On Mysore Government Service," I have the honor to state that Mr. Carr, Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, says that the above individual may be warned that he will have part of his pension stopped if this sort of thing occurs again. His pension papers have not yet been received from the Deputy Commissioner. He was on leave when he posted the aforesaid Cover. Mr. Carr's suggestion seems the most suitable.

I have the honor to be,
